

Satellite radio has become an invaluable tool for the over the road truck driver that the local radio services have never been able to match. It has increased highway safety and traffic management by alerting drivers to adverse weather and traffic situations thus allowing us to seek an alternate routes or shut down prior to entering the affected area which decreases the chance of further incidents in that area. This service has made our highways safer and should not be altered in any way.

Thomas L. Turner